

1. By Day tab reflects that over the course of the month of November there was a steady decline of users going from roughly 44k rides down to roughly 31k rides.
2. Use type tab shows that there are far greater member users and casual users in the november 2021.
3. The bubble map tab shows the user density in different geographic areas of the map. You can see that the south end of the map has far more users and rides.
4. The Ride Duration Tab shows the average length of time of a ride by ever start station.
5. .The Station Rides Tab shows the total/user type at the top most popular start stations.